

Eve Soleil

b. 1992

Eve Soleil is an artist, filmmaker, and creative director based in New York City. Her work operates at the intersection of preservation, meaning-making, and material culture, proposing that when we collect and shape ephemera, we are giving form to the world. In the face of the doomsday vibe permeating contemporary life, Soleil's practice insists that the artist's hand and eye remain forces of nature. Her recent two-channel video installation You Can Live Forever in Paradise on Earth / Electronic Monitoring, Harassment and Manipulation of the Mind Within Modern Society (2024) extends this into an investigation of surveillance, electronic harassment, and the manipulation of consciousness within modern networked society. The work was selected for the 2024 Net Gala and shown at the Whitney Staff Art Show, Westbeth Gallery, New York, October 2025.
