

Eve Soleil

b. 1992

Eve Soleil is an artist, filmmaker, and creative director based in New York City. The artist's work reinforces the notion that acts of preservation forge meaning. While these compositions explore our impulse to preserve both valueless trash and memorabilia, they simultaneously suggest that when we encounter, collect, and shape ephemera, we are giving meaning to the world.

In the face of a grim doomsday vibe that permeates contemporary culture, Soleil's work suggests the artist's hand and eye act as forces of nature.
